

DISTRICT AT A GLANCE

Location and Geographical Units

The district lies between 31°7' and 32°3' North latitude and 74°29' and 75°23' in the East longitude and had international boundary with Pakistan. It is bounded by river Beas in the South Eastern side and river Ravi on the North West side. According to 2001 census the population of district Amritsar was 21, 52,182. The urban population of the place counts for 11, 02,080 and rural population counts for 10, 50,102. Annexure 5

Administrative Divisions:-

District Amritsar is divided into 4 Tehsils namely Amritsar-1, Amritsar-II, Ajnala, Baba Bakala, where as Attari, Lopoke, Majitha, Ramdas, Tarsika are 5 sub tehsils in the district. There are 9 community development blocks namely Ajnala, Rayya, Majitha, Tarsikka, Jandiala, Chogawan, Harsha Chhina, Verka .Recently block Attari has been formed.

The district comprises of 976 villages with geographical area of 2.64lac hatares, out of which 2.22lac hatares are cultivable.