

The underground water conveyance system on tubewells is very useful in arresting conveyance losses of water from source to the farmers' field, saving water, electricity & labour. In case of paddy the saving out to be 3000 cum irrigation water withdrawn saving 125 units of electricity. 35932 tubewells installed for under ground conveyance system. Considering the alarming situation in Fatehgarh District 2250 hectares more area is to be covered over 5 years @ rate of 50000/- hect. at 50% subsidy. The total cost involved for laying this system is Rs 1125 lac. It will require Rs 562.50 lac